Spinifex Indigene

Barossa Valley

Mataro | Shiraz

Sourced from very mature vineyards, some exceeding 100 years of age, Indigene displays a potent and complex array of briary dark fruits and savory secondary complexities. The beauty and value of old vine vineyards is in the discreet complexity their wines express, they are aromatically subtle yet deep and display hard to define, enigmatic characters that are both sweet and earthy, rich yet ethereal.

This is a classic Indigene; on the nose dark plum, spicy blackberry, cardamom, ink, smoke, a salty/sanguine note, roasted rosemary and said old vine character.

Reserved and presently compact palate, savory, nutty tannins start early and draw the sour plum, dried herb, roasted nut and reduced pan juice flavors through to a fresh, firm, savory finish. Shows a great balance of strong, pure yet subtle fruit meshed to a savory, masculine frame.
