Spinifex Indigene

Barossa Valley

Shiraz | Mataro

Deep vibrant garnet

Restrained yet deep aromatics range through hazel nut, sandalwood, bay leaf, iodine and nori to more primary elements of fruity bitter chocolate, dried cherry, griotte and blueberry with time in the glass. Displays the warm savoury depth of old vines and ancient Barossa soils.

Initially shy on the palate, stony, herb laced blue fruits – builds with air a strong savoury fruit core that flirts with opulence – a discreet richness held in check with finely chiselled sandy tannins and blueberry like acids. Displays a lovely measure of flesh and bone. Strongly regional. Soulful.
